Based in Bitonto, we serve leading European dealers, contractors, and manufacturers with a specialised, focused approach built on deep market knowledge and an extensive industry network.

From demolition to recycling technologies, we identify opportunities before they become trends – guided by four core principles: expertise, transparency, reliability, and value creation.

Founded and led by Pasquale Depalo, a recognised expert in demolition attachments, we deliver innovative, high-performance solutions that help contractors, dealers, and industry professionals maximise efficiency and remain competitive.

WHAT WE DO

You ask. We find the solution.

We work fast to meet our customers' needs, supporting dealers and end users across Europe for over 9 years with reliability, discretion, and respect for their privacy.

We provide fast, no-cost evaluations for old, surplus, or unsold hydraulic attachments sitting in your yard.

Our sales process is simple and transparent: share your equipment list, agree on a price, and we take care of the rest. We assume the responsibility and risk of selling your stock, saving you time and effort.

From evaluation to sale and shipment, we manage every transaction with professionalism, confidentiality, and trust, providing reliable shipping solutions throughout Europe.

YOUR EQUIPMENT. YOUR PRIVACY.
